May is packed with things to do with two very large art exhibitions to visit and the third Southern Barossa Antiques Show all in Lyndoch! There's no reason to leave the Southern Barossa for entertainment.

Please remember to let us know if you're holding an event or have something that would interest your local community. New contributors are always welcome!

Also, we seem to be running out of printed editions in some locations. While it's always possible to increase the print run, the cost of printing is very high (in fact it increased by 30% late last year), so we don't want to end up with a surplus.

If you would like to receive the full colour version via email on the 1st of each month, please email us and we'll put you on the subscription list.

Advertising in The Lyndoch Grapevine.

As this is a NFP publication, all advertising revenue is used to offset our only cost, which is printing. Please consider supporting this community newsletter by placing an advertisement. We would be happy to assist with the design and layout.

SOUTHERN BAROSSA MEN'S SHED

The Men's Shed is a concept which is growing in popularity and increasing in number in Australia and around the globe. It provides an outlet for men, much in the same way that the backyard shed has in Australian culture over many years.

The Southern Barossa Mens Shed (SBMS) welcomes men from all walks of life to attend our Shed. You can participate in a range of activities in the workshop if that is your desire or you can simply turn up for 'a cuppa' and socialise with others in a non pressured setting. The Mens Shed does not follow a strict format but it does encourage fellowship. Projects are also undertaken which benefit the community.

Making or repairing furniture or homewares or toys, mending and fixing motors, renovating bicycles, arts and crafts, all examples (but certainly not the limits) of the activities that can be undertaken at the Shed depending on the knowledge and skillset of the members. There is an emphasis on 'having a go' with projects but there is no pressure, it is most important for men to enjoy the activities, have a sense of belonging and feel happy in the Shed environment.

Men with an interest in the activities of the SBMS are welcome to attend on Tuesdays and Wednesdays between 9am-1pm. at the rear of Wirraminna Little Shop of Treasures on Queen Street, Williamstown.

Any enquiries relating the shed, membership or the hire of the meeting room (attached to the workshop) can be directed to Glen Venning on 0409 675 937.

Bruce Thiele Red Wine Club Lyndoch Dinner

Mystery Wines at Lyndoch

The Lyndoch Hotel's Red Room Restaurant was the venue for the Bruce Thiele Red Wine Club's monthly dinner and wine showcasing.

On arrival members and guests enjoyed a welcome wine and finger food. Welcome wine was a 2019 Cooper Burns Rosé to go with the hot and cold roaming finger food from the Red Room Kitchen. Delicious finger food was the popular vote.

So too was the welcome wine which was, as usual subject to the members looking glass. Judged to be a little darker than the usual salmon pink of Rosé the wine had a soft well balanced palate with good fruit. As is their nature Club members just have to check to see if the prestigious wine writers get it right. Huon Hooke gave it 95 points. The Club's verdict was -- Yes Huon's 95 points is on target.

The Club's Newsletter Editor Ian Cooper was Wine Showcasing Presenter for the night. He presided over a Mystery Red Wine Challenge. The challenge was to identify the mystery wine. After much huffing and puffing member correctly identified the mystery wine as varietal Grenache. A show of some good wine knowledge combined with a bit of wine ineptitude.

So what did the Club learn on the night about identifying a Grenache varietal? The answer coming from the tables was it is a matter cherry, raspberry, strawberry and plum and maybe a bit of pepper on the palate.

For the Club's main course Thea, the Red Room Chef, had personally hand made massive beef schnitzels. Yes massive. They went over the edges of the plates. Served with a very tasty whiskey gravy, crispy chips and fresh salads.

Dessert was a Club favourite of sticky date pudding and cream with a tipples of Port from the Club's own 200 ltr. barrel. Custodian of the Club's barrel is Tina Kies from Kies Winery in Lyndoch.

John Ellis and Tony Impett ponder-- 'what is this wine?'

Bruce Thiele Red Wine Club

Hello to all the guys and girls who live in Lyndoch who are partial to red wine. Especially those who enjoy sampling, talking about and evaluating good reds with some of the experts in the Barossa and beyond.

The next Wine Showcasing and Dinner to be held at the Lyndoch Hotel Red Room Restaurant will be Tuesday May 23rd -6.45pm to 9.30pm. Lyndoch (and area) residents, if you are not a member you are invited and welcome to come along as guests.

So if you are interested in coming along as a guest to check out what's going on, give Bob Heinicke a call on 8524 5252 or email btredwineclub@gmail.com

The Bruce Thiele Red Wine Club is the Barossa's largest and oldest independent wine club. It has been around for 41 years and is a part of the fabric that makes the Barossa Valley.

Sue Connelly was the Club's liaison person on the night with the Red Rooms Chef Thea and the kitchen.

Sue Connelly, Rita Coleman and Mary Mc Lennan take up the Mystery Wine Challenge.

A door prize for Mystery Wine presenter Ian Cooper with Raffle Master for the night Tony Connelly.

LYNDOCH HISTORICAL SOCIETY

For its History Month activity on Tuesday 16th May the Historical Society has chosen to provide Lyndoch's involvement with the Vintage Festival over the past 75 years. There will be a photographic display of the many floats and queens representing Lyndoch over the years in the meeting room at the rear of the Lyndoch Library from 11 a.m. until 4 p.m.

The Society was made aware of this photograph of the 1st Lyndoch Scout Group participating in a camp held at Tanunda during the 1930s. The formation of this early group was the result of the effort of Scout Master, Rev Cedric Noon (Anglican Minister at Lyndoch 1927 – 1938) assisted by David Kennedy.

In May 1935 the Lyndoch Scouts organised the lighting of a bon fire on Trial Hill. The boys were delighted in the joining of a chain of beacon fires throughout the Empire to mark the celebration of 25 years' reign by His Majesty King George; and they were likewise impressed with the ceremony associated burning. The blaze could be seen for miles around. Visitors from the neighbouring towns joined in the ceremony, and the night was made gay by the singing of songs to the accompaniment of a concertina. The National Anthem concluded this loyal effort.

Rev Noon was also responsible for the carob trees along the road side. He propagated them and had the school children plant them on various Arbor Days. For the June 1937 occasion, he organised for 40 Carob Trees to be planted along Tanunda Road completing an avenue of trees from Lyndoch to the Church of England Rectory. This was to provide shade for congregation members walking from Lyndoch township to church.

WILLIAMSTOWN GARDEN CLUB

Williamstown Garden Club Closes its doors after over 27 years

Prue Hart (Treasurer) and Lexley Reinke (Chairperson) hand over donation to Steve Elliot Brigade Captain Williamstown CFS

Due a lack of volunteers and a slow decline in membership the Garden Club has decided to close.

This decision was taken at the AGM in February 2023 and all formal processes are now complete with the balance of funds being donated to the CFS.

The final meetings speaker was John Kassenbaun from the Williamstown History Society who described the historical walk around the town and provided a snapshot of the numerous records and photographs that have been gathered.

This is a good opportunity to thank the outgoing committee for its dedication and efforts during a difficult period. To all the members thanks for the memories of the great times we had over the journey.

On a more positive note the club put its support behind a community Garden for the town, this looks to be progressing thanks to support from both St Peters and Uniting Churches. We wish this venture well.

The Eagle's Nest.
