Auctioneer: Ashley Fawcett

Editor's Note:

The Tungkillo Monster Auction was first held in 1990. It began as a means of raising funds to build the Tungkillo Soldiers' Memorial Hall. The first auctions were held on James Law's property. They moved to the Memorial Park in 1995, after the construction of the amenities block. The BBQ was also installed in 1995 followed by the shelter shed in 1996.

The Hall was completed and opened in 2003. There has been an annual auction since 1990. Looking to the future, this year's auction funds will be used towards 'greening' up the grounds around the hall to make it user friendly for the community. We hope to see you in the crowd on auction day!!!

*Best Regards,
Christine and Sue*
Ps. Feedback on the new hard copy format is most welcome.

FEBRUARY BINGO

Our first bingo night for the year, held on Saturday 17th February 2024 was a bit quieter than some previous bingo evenings, but all 26 people that did attend had a wonderful time.

Amy Kelly was very happy to win the meat tray, other raffle prize winners on the night were Stevo, Micha, Diana, Maxine, Hayley Kelly & Joyleen Burton.

Marylou Schumacher was the lucky winner of the big money at the end of the night.

Congratulations to all the winners on the night.

Thanks to Joyleen Burton & Mandy Lintern for their raffle prize donation.

Next Bingo evening will be held on Saturday the 25th of May 2024. We hope to see you there.

"SUMMER CARD LUNCHEON "

A very special card luncheon to start the year off on Thursday, 15th February 2024.

Our oldest card player, Ross Vogt, turned 101 on the day. Elaine Day made Ross a cake that was shared at afternoon tea time, Everyone sung Happy Birthday to Ross. Ross gave a little speech, thanking all for their birthday wishes & Elaine for the cake. Ross is still playing cards with the best of them & has been coming from Kapunda to the Tungkillo card luncheons for approximately 15years.

Ross has written two autobiographies over the years. He has had a very interesting & busy life. Sadly, his wife Grace passed away 20 years ago.

A photo of Ross & Elaine appeared in the The Leader a couple of weeks ago. We wish Ross all the best for many more birthdays to come.

Card winners on the day were: Neil Collette & Glad.
Neil Day & Maxine received the boobie prizes on the day.
Marg beat Daryl at the game of Rummie.

Once again, thanks so much to all our helpers on the day. You are very much appreciated. I'm looking forward to seeing everyone here for our autumn card luncheon on Thursday, the 18th of April 2024.

The Mt. Pleasant Natural Resource Centre was established in 2000 to provide a forum for sustainability issues. The centre also initiated the Mt. Pleasant Farmers’ Market, and then redeveloped the council property behind the library as a community garden and Recreate, a centre promoting sustainable living. Recreate also provides a variety of environmental information. Artists can sell their handmade crafts made from repurposed or recycled materials, on consignment at Recreate.

Workshops with an environmental focus are held in our ‘Share Shed’ as well as being a resource for visitors to purchase a variety of surplus goods including sewing and craft materials, metal and plastic.

The centre also has a salvage yard, a favourite place to fossick for a bargain. The community garden is a great space to wander through and purchase seedlings and plants, and we have a worm farm too! The program for this year’s events will be circulated soon.

Myoporum Parvifolium

Myoporum is a prostrate ground cover which can form a broad mat of foliage of up to 3 meters in length and approximately 30cms in height. There are around 16 species found in Australia. These wonderful plants are a great weed suppressant plant for slopes and hard to reach places.

Myoporum parviflorum is better known as creeping boobialla and is a lovely ground cover that prefers a sunny position with well-draining soil and hot days will do wonders. If grown in shade the plant will become sparsely foliated. Myoporum is endemic to Southern Australia. There are three different types of this plant.

- Fine leaf form
- Broad leaf form
- Purple leaf form

All these plants are extremely tough, soft to walk on, occasionally could even be used in light traffic areas for a substitute for a lawn. They are a fast growing, salt, drought, and light frost tolerant plant. Flowers are a beautiful small delicate star shaped and will flower over a long time, usually from Spring to Autumn in the correct conditions. Flowers attract a wide range of insects, bees, and birds. This plant is also fire-resistant.

Myoporum have very few pests but can become susceptible to the Myoporum thrip (Klambothrips myopori), spider mites and Chocolate root rot (Chocolate root rot- is a fungus that attacks the roots, and this causes the leaves to turn yellow and wilt, this begins on the tips of the branches. Very quickly all leaves will fall off, the fungus forms a dark brown to black crust on the trunk with a white margin, often with clear drops of liquid. Crusts can grow up to 1 meter in length).

Propagation is easy to do with this plant. Cutting off hardened and current growth strikes easily, cuttings should be 8-12 cm long either the soft tips or the semi-hard cuttings, can be placed back into soil but the preferred method is to strip the bottom leaves and place in a jar of water, roots should start to form approximately within 3 weeks.

“Plants in the Spotlight”

Echeveria Elegans or more commonly known as “Hen and Chickens”, is an unusual succulent in that it forms dense rosettes of blue/grey leaves that are tinted on the margins and produce bell shaped flowers on these stalks.

Propagation is by removing the offsets (or chickens) in spring or summer, which form readily. Simply twist or cut off and replant to form your next colony.

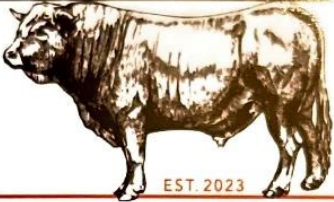

They grow well in pots or are an excellent feature for dry landscapes like mine. Full sun, attracts birds and bees/ladybirds, low on water, marginal frost tolerance.

NEWS & SERVICES

Discounted baits are available to help control foxes in the Murraylands.

Managing the impact of foxes on the local landscape is most successful when neighbours coordinate baiting efforts at the same time. To assist landholders to manage foxes, the Murraylands and Riverland Landscape Board is offering discounted fox baits to landholders in the Murraylands. Landholders can pre-order discounted baits to collect at upcoming collection days in February and March.

For more information, go to <https://www.landscape.sa.gov.au/mr/pest-plants-animals/managing-pests/fox-bait-distribution-days-2024>
